Rustic Pine is a relatively light softwood with a distinctive, broadly-spaced light and dark grain pattern and lots of character.

The tight grain pattern and smooth surface are enhanced with knots, mineral streaks and water stains. Colors range from very white to yellow and reddish brown, and the wood will naturally yellow or darken over time (especially if exposed to direct sun). Since Rustic Pine dents easily, it is often paired with our standard or Artisan distressing packages and glaze.

Rustic Pine is offered in our premium Euro frameless line, in many door styles and stain colors.

Rustic Pine is a very flexible wood that looks equally at home in a “modern rustic” kitchen as it does in a more traditional rustic style, as shown in the two designs above. You’ll definitely want to view a sample door in the stain you’re considering, as the varied grain pattern and color blends of Rustic Pine can take on a greenish hue with some stains.
